Yes, the "to" docket titles are correct and the progmod for each should be A20(d). Thank you.

Thanks,

Jeff

Good morning, Jeff. In reviewing these dockets more closely, it appears CLK made an error when setting these dockets up. AT&T did not request any amendments in these dockets. Please confirm whether these docket titles should be revised. If so, we will also change the prog mods from A20d and A20f, to A20d only. Thank you for your help!
