_____) Filed: October 25, 2010

BELLSOUTH TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC.'s d/b/a AT&T FLORIDA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

COMES NOW, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, and Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, and files its Request for Specified Confidential Classification.

1. On October 11, 2010, AT&T filed in the above-captioned proceedings, its Responses to the Staff of the Florida Public Service Commission's ("Staff's") First Request for Production of Documents (Nos. 1-37). The document produced in response to Item No. 19, contains confidential business information that is considered by AT&T to be proprietary.

2. AT&T hereby files this Request for Specified Confidential Classification because the information contained in above-listed material contains confidential traffic flow and volume data that are deemed proprietary by AT&T. A more specific description of this information is contained in Attachment A. Public disclosure of this information would cause competitive harm to AT&T and provide competitors with an unfair advantage in the market place.

3. The information discussed in the Request for Specified Confidential Classification is valuable and AT&T strives to keep it secret. Therefore, such information should be classified as confidential business information and customer proprietary information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

4. Attachment A to AT&T's Request for Confidential Classification contains an explanation of the proprietary information and identifies the location of the information designated by AT&T as confidential.

4. Attachment B to AT&T's Request for Confidential Classification is two redacted copies of the documents containing the confidential information.

5. Attachment C to AT&T's Request for Confidential Classification is a highlighted copy of the document containing the confidential information.

6. The information discussed in this Request for Specified Confidential Classification is valuable, AT&T treats this information as confidential in all requests, and this information has not been generally disclosed.

7. The original of this Request was filed today with the Office of the Commission Clerk and a copy was served on the Parties.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, AT&T respectfully requests that, pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, the Commission enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential, proprietary business information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 25th day of October, 2010.

Explanation of Proprietary Material

This information contains competitive, business information, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of AT&T and possibly that of its customers, Sprint PCS, Nextel, and Sprint CLEC. The data is valuable to competitors and potential competitors in formulating strategic plans for entry, pricing, marketing, and overall business strategies concerning these services. This same information on competitors is not available to AT&T. Consequently, such information is a trade secret which should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Sections 364.183(3)(a) and 364.183(3)(e), Florida Statutes and is exempt from the Open Records Act.
