Please also note that, per the e-filing requirements:

The acknowledgment indicates the document has been received, but does not confirm the document meets the requirements for electronic filing.

The party submitting a document for filing by electronic transmission acknowledges and agrees:

- That the party submitting the filing shall be responsible for any delay, disruption, or interruption of the electronic signals and accepts the full risk that the document may not be properly filed with the Division as a result.
- That the filing date for an electronically transmitted document shall be the date the Division receives the complete document. If the document is received on a non-business day, or after 5:00 p.m. on a business day, it will be considered filed as of 8:00 a.m. on the following business day.
- That the Commission does not have the authority to grant an extension of time for certain jurisdictional filings, including motions for reconsideration and notices of appeal.

You may try again to refile your previous e-filing per the instructions in the e-mail below.
