Re: Notification of Transfer of Control of Sprint Corporation to SOFTBANK CORP.

Dear Ms. Cole:

Sprint Corporation (“Sprint”) hereby provides the Florida Public Service Commission (“Commission”) notice that on July 10, 2013, a transaction between Sprint Nextel Corporation, Starburst II, Inc. (“Starburst II”) and SOFTBANK CORP. (“SoftBank”) was completed by which SoftBank acquired indirect control of Sprint.

This transaction took place at the parent holding company level only and results in no change to the Sprint subsidiaries operating in Florida. No name change, transfer of certificates, assets, or customers, or change in tariffs for the Sprint subsidiaries operating in Florida result from the closing of this transaction. The transaction will be transparent to the customers of Sprint’s subsidiaries and Sprint’s subsidiaries will continue to provide service to their customers in Florida pursuant to those authorizations under the same rates, terms, and conditions. Attached is a copy of the press release announcing the closing of the transaction.

Sprint is pleased that the transaction will provide Sprint the financial resources needed to accelerate and expand its broadband deployment in Florida and other parts of the country. SoftBank’s investment promises to increase the speed, coverage, reliability, and capabilities of Sprint's wireline and wireless broadband networks and will enable Sprint to offer consumers an even more attractive competitive alternative.

Sprint looks forward to its exciting new future. Please contact me with questions regarding the transaction or other matters.

Sincerely,

/s/ Susan J. Berlin

Sprint and SoftBank Announce Completion of Merger

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. & TOKYO (BUSINESS WIRE), July 10, 2013 - Sprint Nextel Corporation (NYSE: S) ("Sprint") and SoftBank Corp. (TSE: 9984) ("SoftBank") today announced the completion of their merger whereby SoftBank has invested approximately $21.6 billion in Sprint, consisting of approximately $16.6 billion to be distributed to Sprint stockholders and an aggregate $5 billion of new capital ($1.9 billion at closing) to strengthen Sprint's balance sheet. Sprint stockholders voted to approve the transaction at a special meeting of stockholders held on June 25, 2013.

Through this transaction, approximately 72 percent of current Sprint shares are being acquired by SoftBank for $7.65 per share in cash, and the remaining shares are being converted into shares of a new publicly traded entity named Sprint Corporation. Each Sprint stockholder had the option to elect to receive one share of common stock in the new company or to elect to receive cash, subject to proration, for each share of Sprint common stock owned by that stockholder. A stockholder who made no election was deemed to have elected cash.

Based on the elections made by Sprint stockholders, each stockholder that elected to receive stock will receive one share of stock in Sprint Corporation, and each stockholder that elected (or was deemed to have elected) to receive cash will receive a combination of $5.647658 in cash and 0.261744048 of a share of stock in Sprint Corporation. As a result of the transaction, the ownership of current Sprint equity holders in a stronger, more competitive Sprint will be approximately 22 percent, while SoftBank will own approximately 78 percent, both calculated on a fully diluted basis. Sprint Corporation will be listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") under the ticker symbol, "S." Sprint Corporation has been advised by the NYSE that it is expected that Sprint Corporation will continue to trade on the NYSE's "when-issued" market on July 11, 2013 and regular trading under the ticker symbol "S" will commence on Friday, July 12, 2013. Sprint Corporation stockholders should contact their brokers for instructions on trading in the NYSE's "when-issued" market.

Dan Hesse has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of Sprint Corporation and will serve on the board of directors. Masayoshi Son, founder, Chairman and CEO of SoftBank will serve as Chairman of the Sprint Corporation board of directors and Ronald Fisher, director of SoftBank and president of SoftBank Holdings Inc., has been appointed Vice Chairman. Admiral Michael G. Mullen, Former Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, has been named to the Sprint Corporation board of directors as Security Director. Robert Bennett, Gordon Bethune and Frank Ianna, who are currently members of the Sprint board, will also serve on the Sprint Corporation board of directors. SoftBank and Sprint have not yet determined the remaining members of the Sprint Corporation board of directors. The company's headquarters will remain in Overland Park, Kansas.

The Raine Group LLC is serving as lead financial advisor to SoftBank. Mizuho Securities, Goldman Sachs, Deutsche Bank, JP Morgan and Credit Suisse also served as advisors. SoftBank's legal advisors include Morrison & Foerster LLP as lead counsel, Mori Hamada & Matsumoto as Japanese counsel, Dow Lohnes PLLC as regulatory counsel, Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP as Delaware counsel, and Foulston & Siefkin LLP as Kansas counsel. Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Rothschild Inc. and UBS Investment Bank are co-lead financial advisors for Sprint. Sprint's legal advisors include Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as lead counsel, Lawler, Metzger, Keeney and Logan as regulatory counsel, and Polsinelli PC as Kansas counsel. The Special Committee of the Sprint Board of Directors is being advised by Bank of America Merrill Lynch, Shearman & Sterling LLP, Bingham

McCutchen LLP and Spectrum Management Consulting. Shearman & Sterling LLP, Bingham McCutchen LLP and Spectrum Management Consulting.
