COMMISSION
CLERK

To Whom It May Concern:

IPC Network Services, Inc. is in receipt of your questionnaire dated August 2, 2013 in regards to the filing of service schedules. IPC Network Services, Inc. is licensed as an Alternative Access Vendor (AAV) in the State of Florida as per the attached certificate. As per your letter, only ILECs and CLECs are required to publish the price schedules.

To be more specific and complete, in response to the questionnaire, IPC answers with the following:

1. Does your company currently publicly publish your price schedules for services offered in Florida at a location other than the Florida Public Service Commission?
A: IPC Network Services, Inc. does not publish price schedules for services in Florida at any location.
2. If the answer to the question above is yes, please indicate where the schedule(s) published. If published on a web site or sites, please include the complete address with the date the page was last updated.
A: Not Applicable
3. If your company maintains price schedules with the Commission, does it submit the filing electronically or by mail?
A: Not Applicable
4. If your company currently files by mail, has the company considered electronically?
A: Not Applicable
5. What expense, if any, would be imposed on your company if it were to file electronically?
6. A: Not Applicable

If you require any further information regarding this, please feel free to contact me at (201) 253-2327.

Sincerely,

Sean K. Palmer, Esq.
Corporate Counsel, IPC Network Services, Inc.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AGENCY ACTION
ORDER GRANTING CERTIFICATE TO PROVIDE ALTERNATIVE ACCESS VENDOR SERVICES

BY THE COMMISSION:

NOTICE is hereby given by the Florida Public Service Commission that the action discussed herein is preliminary in nature and will become final unless a person whose interests are substantially affected files a petition for a formal proceeding, pursuant to Rule 25-22.029, Florida Administrative Code.

IPC Network Services, Inc. (IPC) has applied for a certificate to provide Alternative Access Vendor (AAV) services pursuant to Section 364.337, Florida Statutes. Upon review of its application, it appears that IPC has sufficient technical, financial, and managerial capability to provide such service. Accordingly, we hereby grant Certificate No. 8696 to IPC.

If this Order becomes final and effective, it shall serve as IPC's certificate. IPC should, therefore, retain this Order as proof of certification. We are vested with jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 364.335 and 364.337, Florida Statutes.

AAV providers are subject to Chapter 25-24, Florida Administrative Code, Part XIV, Rules Governing Alternative Access Vendor services. AAV providers are also required to comply with all applicable provisions of Chapter 364, Florida Statutes.

In addition, under Section 364.336, Florida Statutes, certificate holders must pay a minimum annual Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAFs) if the certificate was active during any portion of the calendar year. A RAFs Return notice will be mailed each December to IPC for payment by January 30th. Neither the cancellation of the certificate nor the failure to receive a RAFs Return notice shall relieve IPC from its obligation to pay RAFs.

Based on the foregoing, it

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that we hereby grant Certificate No. 8696 to IPC Network Services, Inc., which shall authorize it to provide Alternative Access Vendor services, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the body of this Order. It is further ORDERED that this Order shall serve as IPC Network Services, Inc.'s certificate and should be retained by IPC Network Services, Inc. as proof of certification. It is further ORDERED that the provisions of this Order, issued as proposed agency action, shall become final and effective upon the issuance of a Consummating Order unless an appropriate petition, in the form provided by Rule 28-106.201, Florida Administrative Code, is received by the Office of Commission Clerk, 2540 Shumard Oak Boulevard, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0850, by the close of business on the date set forth in the "Notice of Further Proceedings" attached hereto. It is further ORDERED that in the event this Order becomes final, this docket shall be closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission this 31st day of August, 2007.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing that is available under Section 120.57, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

The action proposed herein is preliminary in nature. Any person whose substantial interests are affected by the action proposed by this order may file a petition for a formal proceeding, in the form provided by Rule 28-106.201, Florida Administrative Code. This petition must be received by the Office of Commission Clerk, 2540 Shumard Oak Boulevard, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0850, by the close of business on September 21, 2007.

In the absence of such a petition, this order shall become final and effective upon the issuance of a Consummating Order.

Any objection or protest filed in this/these docket(s) before the issuance date of this order is considered abandoned unless it satisfies the foregoing conditions and is renewed within the specified protest period.
