after receiving a delinquent notice, shall be automatically penalized $500 for a first offense, $1,000 for a second offense, and $2,000 for a third offense.

Pursuant to Section 364.336, Florida Statutes (F.S.), telecommunication service providers must pay a minimum annual RAF if the entity was licensed or active during any portion of the calendar year. Pursuant to Rule 25-4.0161(3), F.A.C., the form and applicable fees are due to the Florida Public Service Commission by January 30th of the subsequent year.

Pursuant to Section 350.113(4), F.S., the applicable RAF return forms, for the period of January 1 through December 31, are mailed to entities at least 45 days prior to the date that payment of the fee is due.

The Division of Administrative and Information Technology Services advised that the entities below failed to comply with Section 364.336, F.S., and Rule 25-4.0161, F.A.C. In addition, the entities listed below have had one prior docket for the same rule violation in which the company did not pay the 2011 RAF, statutory late payment charges or rule penalty imposed to resolve their respective docket and their certificate was cancelled effective August 13, 2012, in Consummating Order No. PSC-12-0407-CO-TC. In addition, the entities listed herein have not paid the 2012 RAF.

We are vested with jurisdiction over these matters pursuant to Chapters 350 and 364, Florida Statutes.

Accordingly, we hereby find it appropriate to refer these entities to the Florida Department of Financial Services for further collection efforts for failure to comply with Section 364.336, F.S., and Rule 25-4.0161, F.A.C., unless each entity pays a penalty and cost of collection, together totaling $1,000, and remits the past due RAF, past due rule penalty imposed, along with any accrued statutory late payment charges, to the Florida Public Service Commission.

If this Order is not protested by an entity, that entity will be referred to the Florida Department of Financial Services for further collection efforts.
