7 (CS)
Confidential filing 05676-11 in Docket No. 110082-TP consists of two discs. One disc contains confidential customer information related to the Lifeline Program. Although the other disc was to contain different Lifeline information, a blank disc was filed instead.

The disc that actually contains confidential information is in the Office of the Clerk. Unfortunately, the blank disc has been misplaced. We have conducted an extensive search of our offices. Since the missing disc is blank, I believe it may have been inadvertently discarded. While it is regrettable that the disc was misplaced, there appears to be no harm since there was actually no data on the disc.
