Good afternoon, Ms. Hayes,

We appreciate your contacting the Office of Commission Clerk. Since this is really more of a legal question, I have forwarded your message to the attorneys in this docket, Suzanne Brownless and Martha Barrera. If you have any questions, please contact our General Counsel's Office at (850) 413-6199.

I hope you find this information helpful.

Hello,

I have been reviewing the filing index in the above subject case reference, and need to confirm that interested parties need to file a Notice of Appearance first, and then a Motion to Intervene?

We have intervened in past FPL rate increase cases, and just want to be sure of proper filing procedures.

Thank you.
