FPL has been my power + Light between 1969-1970 then 1979-1992 and now since 2005, I've been paying on time as usual. Now I'm a senior on a fixed income and paying the rates is difficult at best. My choices are eating or paying FPL. What I find difficult to believe is that FPL badly needs this rate increase. I also don't understand why the 15-30 second television ads are necessary, with FPL being the only game in town. Perhaps when your FPL decision makers grow old and their children have moved out, perhaps then they will appreciate what seniors go through.
