Subject: FPL Dark Money

Season's Greetings.

Thank you for the comprehensive reporting about how the utility monopoly, FPL and parent company, NEE, misused our hard earned dollars to sway elections in a fraudulent manner (The Miami Herald, 12.2.21, p.1A).

As both a customer and a NEE shareholder since 1979, I am appalled by the company's deceitful and unethical culture with the proactive example set by the FPL President, Eric Silagy. This is certainly not the first time that NEE/FPL has squandered our money in devious and deceitful ways. For example, while he was on the FPL Board of Directors, there was the Fajul power plant payments for completely nothing gained that may still be occurring. Furthermore, FPL contributed to guilty parties that fraudulently overturned the re-election of my State Senator in District 37 in 2020.

These millions of dollars spent for such disgusting political actions should be repaid to shareholders and especially, the customers of FPL. Oh, the irony: Florida Power and Light should not be fraudulently dealing in "dark money."

Happy Holidays,
