Update on Mutual Assistance Group Advocacy Commitments

Tampa Electric is providing this written status update to the consumer parties as agreed upon in Tampa Electric Company's Motion to Approve Storm Cost Settlement Agreement, Exhibit One – Storm Restoration Cost Process Improvements, Section J - Mutual Assistance Group Advocacy Commitments, filed on April 9, 2019 within Docket No. 20170271-EI, which requires an annual written update each year.

Tampa Electric completed the following activities in 2021 as it pertains to the Mutual Assistance Group Advocacy Commitments:

1. Provided the consumer parties with the annual update regarding Mutual Assistance Group Advocacy Commitments on April 12, 2021.
2. Participated in SEE's Fall virtual meeting which promotes the intent of the company's settlement agreement for this area. The following activities were facilitated at the SEE's Fall virtual meeting that specifically covered this area:
 - a. From a requesting company perspective, representatives from Entergy and CLECO presented lessons learned from the mutual assistance efforts associated with the customer outages due to Hurricane Ida.
 - b. From a responding company perspective, representatives from AEP and First Energy presented lessons learned from the mutual assistance efforts associated with the customer outages due to Hurricane Ida.
 - c. From a requesting company perspective, a representative from CenterPoint Energy presented lessons learned from the mutual assistance efforts associated with the customer outages due to Hurricane Nicholas.
 - d. A representative from AEP presented information on new technologies that may allow utilities to better predict damage and associated outages from storms.
