

Antonia Hover

From: Frank Copple <ftc513@icloud.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:42 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Frank Copple

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Patrick McCann <pjmccann333@icloud.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:42 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Patrick McCann

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Jenna Collins <jenna.renee@me.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:42 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jenna Naskolnakorn

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: gianna Kohl <giannassalon@me.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:40 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Gianna Kohl

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Jon & Amy Platt <goldenplatts@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:30 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Amy Platt

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Doug Carlson <dee-cee@hotmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:28 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Doug Carlson

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: LUTHER LUDWIG <luthersusan@bellsouth.net>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:17 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Luther Ludwig

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Maggie Ali <maggie.ali1956@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:02 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Margaret Ali

Antonia Hover

From: Cindy Seelke <cinsee1@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:06 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Cindy Seelke

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Ryan <rjr219@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:04 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Ryan Rauch

Antonia Hover

From: Ryan <rjr219@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:03 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Ryan Rauch

Antonia Hover

From: Gary Lloyd <avlreiki@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:03 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Gary Lloyd

Antonia Hover

From: Tim Duda <timduda@icloud.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:03 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Timothy Edward Duda

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Jeffrey D Pulls <jeffrey.pulis@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 9:02 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Pulis

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Arielle Terry <arielle.n.terry@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:59 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commissioner LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Arielle Terry

Antonia Hover

From: Mary Hammann <mmhviola@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:58 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Mr LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Mary Hammann

Antonia Hover

From: Kathy and Dave <mminprop@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:30 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa, I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked. As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy> To call this behavior undemocratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power. A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida. Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely, David Mason

Antonia Hover

From: John Forslin <jfsuperior@charter.net>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:30 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

John Forslin

John Forslin
jfsuperior@charter.net
9068696621
#LeadOnClimate
Pray for the dead, but fight like hell for the living! (Mother Jones)

Antonia Hover

From: Elisabeth Brown <elisanne218@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:20 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth McCann

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Lynn Weller <lynnweller@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:20 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Lynn Weller

--

Lynn Weller
she/her/hers
919-606-0836

Antonia Hover

From: Judith Zingher <max.zing.her@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:11 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Judith Zingher

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Jessica Bader <jessica.ashlee.bader@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:10 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jessica Bader

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Cassie Hooker <hooker.cassie@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:10 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commissioner LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Cassie Hooker

Antonia Hover

From: Janice Singer <jsinger508@me.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:05 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Janice Singer

Sent from my iPad

Antonia Hover

From: Susan Steinhauser <susan0725@me.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 8:02 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Susan Steinhauser

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Nathan Dombeck <nated1455@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:57 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Nathan Dombeck

Antonia Hover

From: Deborah K. Lloyd <deb@deblloydhealing.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:51 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Deborah Lloyd

Antonia Hover

From: Sara Grant <sabg75@hotmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:45 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commissioner LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Sara Gentzler

Antonia Hover

From: Ashley Bull <acb_green@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:30 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Ashley Bull

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Carolyn Moore <20daisy09@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:01 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Robert Moore

Antonia Hover

From: stephellis1024@gmail.com
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 6:56 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Ellis

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: NED TRUDEAU <nedtrudeau@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 6:49 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Patricia Trudeau

Antonia Hover

From: Dara Olmsted Silverstein <dara.olmsted@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 6:49 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Dara Olmsted Silverstein

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Home <jkkandl@comcast.net>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 6:01 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jody berman

Antonia Hover

From: Ellen Nakamura <enakamura@att.net>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 5:50 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Ellen Nakamura

Sent from my T-Mobile 5G Device

Antonia Hover

From: Kai Martin <kaismartin@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 5:14 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Kai Martin

Antonia Hover

From: Andrew Hattala <andrwhatt55@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 3:21 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Andy Hattala

Antonia Hover

From: Corinna Schulenburg <corinnaschulenburg55@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:01 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Corinna Schulenburg

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Leslie Wharton <leslie.b.wharton@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:14 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Leslie Wharton

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Christopher Kelley <kelleychri@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 7:17 AM
To: Office of Commissioner La Rosa
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] LaRosa,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Christopher Kelley

Sent from my iPhone