

Antonia Hover

From: Tiffany R. Jansen <tiffanyrjansen@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 10:34 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Jansen

--

Tiffany R. Jansen
she/her

Freelance Journalist
tiffanyrjansen@gmail.com
301-788-1762
www.tiffanyrjansen.com

My latest piece for Westchester Home Magazine, This Bedford Hills Home Hides a Dreamy Alfresco Escape

Antonia Hover

From: Amanda Woolf <woolfa025@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 10:53 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Amanda Woolf

Antonia Hover

From: Rebecca Thomas <a2bcthomas@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 10:55 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Chris Thomas

Antonia Hover

From: Frances Dack <fladack@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:04 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

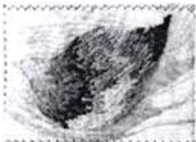

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Frances Dack

--

"Inspiration exists, but it has to find you working." - Pablo Picasso

Frances L A Dack

<http://frommysewingroom.wordpress.com/>

Antonia Hover

From: Michael Wittig <mewittig@me.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:04 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Mike Wittig

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Lucinda Young <luyoung1313@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:05 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Ms. Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Lucinda Young

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Mgraziano <mgraziano1@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:09 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Martha Graziano

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Jen <jen.thilman@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:11 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jen Thilman

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Shauna Junco <sjuncopharmd@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:18 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commssioner Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Shauna Junco
Orlando, Florida

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Susan Penner <spenner171@comcast.net>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:39 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Susan Penner

Sent from my iPad

Antonia Hover

From: Treve Johnson <treve@treve.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 11:47 AM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Treve Johnson

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: nygm <jrmbnym@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:07 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take immediate action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Nygm

Antonia Hover

From: Nikki Alvarado <nikkimalvarado@icloud.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:12 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Nikki Alvarado

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Stephanie Davis <sd135626@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:18 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Davis

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: Joyce Hyne <hynejoyce75@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:21 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commissioner Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Joyce Hyne

Antonia Hover

From: Andrew Reich <andrewreich@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:26 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear Commisioner Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Andrew Reich

Antonia Hover

From: Jennifer Seelke <jenniferseelke@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:36 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Seelke

Sent from my iPhone

Antonia Hover

From: jake jacquard <bballjacquard@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, March 3, 2023 12:48 PM
To: Office of Commissioner Passidomo
Subject: Revoke FPL's charter

Dear [RecipientTitle] Passidomo,

I'm writing to urge you to begin an immediate investigation into Florida Power and Light in order to determine whether its charter to operate in the state of Florida should be revoked.

As you are surely aware, FPL CEO Eric Silagy stepped down suddenly after highly credible allegations of campaign finance violations, media manipulation, and the surveillance of critical journalists:

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/25/1151453870/fpl-florida-power-ceo-eric-silagy>

To call this behavior un-democratic would be a massive understatement. FPL, it seems clear, is more than willing to violate the public trust, game the political system, and do anything and everything to increase its profits - all on the dime of ratepayers who have no choice but to pay them for their power.

A company so blatantly working against the public interest can no longer be allowed to do business in Florida.

Please take swift and sweeping action to investigate FPL and determine whether it is necessary to revoke their charter, as clearly seems to be the case.

Sincerely,

Jake jacquard

Sent from my iPhone