Docket No. 20220069-GU
Filed: February 6, 2024

FLORIDA CITY GAS’S REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

Florida City Gas (“FCG” or “Company”) by and through its undersigned counsel, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006(4), Florida Administrative Code, hereby submits its Request for Extension of Confidential Classification for information contained in the the Company’s Responses to response to the Federal Executive Agencies' ("FEA") First Request for Production of Documents No. 2. (cross-referenced Document No. 05076-2022). This information was originally granted confidential classification by Order No. PSC-2022-0306-CFO-GU, issued August 18, 2022. In support of this Request for Extension, FCG hereby states that:

1. On July 28, 2022, FCG served its Responses to FEA’s First Request for Production of Documents. Contemporaneously, FCG filed a request for confidential classification of certain information contained in its responses to FEA Document Request No. 2. Specifically, FCG attested that the information for which it sought confidential classification consisted of a report related to financial forecasts that was received through a paid subscription service. This information, if disclosed, would potentially impair the competitive efforts of FCG. The Commission therefore determined, by Order No. PSC-2022-0306-CFO-GU, that the information qualified as proprietary confidential business information and was entitled to continued and ongoing protection under Section 366.093, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code. The Company continues to treat this same information as confidential, and it has not otherwise been disclosed to the best of the Company’s knowledge.

2. The information for which FCG seeks an extension of confidential classification has already been found to meet the definition of “proprietary confidential business information” as set forth in Section 366.093(3), Florida Statutes, which provides:

(3) Proprietary confidential business information means information, regardless of form or characteristics, which is owned or controlled by the person or company, is intended to be and is treated by the person or company as private in that the disclosure of the information would cause harm to the ratepayers or the person’s or company’s business operations, and has not been disclosed unless disclosed pursuant to a statutory provision, an order of a court or administrative body, or private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public. Proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) Trade secrets.
- (b) Internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors.
- (c) Security measures, systems, or procedures.
- (d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms.
- (e) Information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information.
- (f) Employee personnel information unrelated to compensation, duties, qualifications, or responsibilities.

3. At present, the Company still treats this information as confidential. As such, FCG asks that confidential classification be extended for an additional period of at least another 18 months. Should the Commission no longer find that it needs to retain the information, FCG respectfully requests that the confidential information be returned to the Company.

WHEREFORE, FCG respectfully requests that the information contained in its Response to FEA’s First Request for Production of Documents No. 2, which was originally afforded confidential classification by Order No. PSC-2022-0306-CFO-GU, be allowed to retain classification as “proprietary confidential business information,” and thus, exempt from Section 119.07, Florida Statutes, for an additional period of 18 months.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 6th day of February, 2024.
