Thank you for the additional information, Mr. Cohen. I need to confirm the zip code though. You indicated that 34946 is the zip code for the mailing address in Placida, FL. The USPS identifies the zip code 34946 as Ft. Pierce, FL. However the zip code for Placida, FL is showing as 33946. If I add the zip code you provided, it will automatically populate the city as Ft. Pierce. As those cities are nowhere near each other, you may not get mail if we add the zip code you provided.

Thank you for your help.
