Dear PSC Member,

As a concerned Duke Energy customer [and AARP member in Florida], I am writing to express my opposition to Duke Energy's proposed rate increase.

I am a senior citizen trying to survive on a Social Security check and am barely making it. I get so tired of all the price increases on everything we require to live. As long as corporate profits are high, and high level officials are raking in millions, no corporation needs to raise rates like they are. That includes Duke Energy. Corporate Greed in America has really gotten out of hand. Some may not be so bright but many of us out here are not stupid and we see what's being done to us.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Murphy
