Good Morning Kiara,

Yes, there was a docket for them. It appears they calculated everything correctly ($744.00 in RAF's + P&I) and applied the $500.00 non-compliance penalty, however the consummating order in the docket was issued on May 30, and we didn't receive this payment until June 3. So, unfortunately for the company, they will have to re-apply for a certificate.

We can cash the check and apply $744.00 to their RAFs (The RAF system says $780.00 is owed but once you enter the postmark date of May 17 it should revert back to $744.00). For the remaining $500.00 for the non-compliance penalty, $300.00 goes to the general revenue fund and $200.00 goes to the PSC trust fund.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kunkler

Hi Andrew,

We received this RAF form and their check is made out as $1000.00 more than what they put on their RAF form. Can you please let me know if there is a docket for them and if so, the breakdown of the funds as well?

Thank you,
