Yes, I am still working diligently on it. The surveyor is in the process of determining if a field survey will be needed or not. I will keep you updated, very soon.

Danielle, Sorry this is the first time since the hurricanes I have had a chance to breath. I spoke with the surveyor and I am sending them some information by email and we are scheduled to meet next week. He told me I could go to the court house and get some of this, so I will do that next week also and send it to the docket file. I will let you know more after I meet with them next week. Thanks for your patience. Mike
