I write, as a property owner on Little Gasparilla Island, to strenuously object to building a sewage treatment plant on the lateral fields at Hideaway Bay Beach Club.

To the extent that sewers are appropriate, they should be located north, near the state park. Hideaway's septic works well. We have maintained it at considerable expense, as good stewards of the environment.

The fact that Hideaway was originally excluded from the plan and then was slipped back in - with no notice to us as homeowners - smacks of a violation to our due process rights.

We are just now recovering from Hurricane Ian, nearly three years after the fact. Building a sewage treatment system on our septic fields would literally shut down the homes of 102 residences. It is not fair, and we will fight any attempt to pursue this plan.

Thank you for your attention.
