Dear Commissioners,

Please, I implore you! Please put yourself in our shoes... my husband and I own a property on Little Gasparilla Island at Hideaway Bay Condos. We purchased here for the rustic and quiet old Florida feel. Now our paradise is in jeopardy.

Environmental Utilities is for the second time attempting to force its way into our home and into our pockets by trying to install sewer on our island. In an attempt to obtain approval for this project that have amended the location and are trying to take part of our property by eminent domain. THIS MAN LIVES IN NORTH CAROLINA! Do not approve his application!

Vote NO on docket 20240032-SU

Thank you for your time and your consideration,

Lauren Schuh
