Florida Power Lights Rate Increase

We obviously have a monopoly going on here, that never should have been aloud. As expected, this has become a huge issue for the residents in this state. Electricity is a commodity that is a necessity if you reside in a house. FPL talks about preparing for increase of newcomers to Florida, staying ahead of infrastructure, etc., so they need us to keep paying for their profits through rate increases. So, the people can see the power bills kept low, or decrease? Does this make sense to you?
