Dear Florida Public Service Commissioners,

Dear Florida Public Service Commissioners,

I am writing to firmly and unequivocally oppose the proposed settlement from Florida Power & Light (FPL). This deal is nothing more than a corporate maneuver to protect profits at the direct expense of Florida's families. It is unjust, unnecessary, and unacceptable.

Floridians are already burdened by skyrocketing housing, food, and insurance costs. For FPL to demand even higher rates during this crisis is an insult to the very people who keep the lights on. Residential customers should not be treated as a limitless source of revenue for corporate shareholders.

The alternative settlement from the Office of Public Counsel and consumer advocates proves there is a better path — one that protects the public and ensures fairness. By comparison, FPL's proposal is predatory and demonstrates disregard for the financial well-being of everyday Floridians.

As regulators, your responsibility is to defend the public interest — not to reward corporate greed. I strongly urge you to reject FPL's settlement in Docket #20250011 and instead adopt the consumer-focused alternative. The people of Florida deserve protection, not exploitation.

Sincerely,

Daniel Mack
