Hi Danyel,

Could you please file the email below in the docket file for Docket No. 20250052-WS? With this extension, the first set of ROGs and PODs will be due on 1/14/26 instead of the original 1/7/26. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Danny

Good morning Tom,

After conferring with staff, we have no objection to granting this extension. With that, we will allow the one-week extension to make these responses due 1/14/26. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,

Good morning,

With the volume of these and number of company personnel out for the holidays, CSWR-Florida is requesting an additional 7 days for its responses, which would make them due 1/14/26. Please let me know if you have any objection to this extension or would like to discuss.

Thank you,

Tom
