Re: Verizon Florida LLC 2009 Price Cap Filing

Dear Ms. Salak:

Pursuant to Florida Statutes Section 364.051, "Price Regulation," Verizon Florida LLC (Verizon) submits this filing to adjust certain rates for basic and non basic services.

The 2009 price regulation filing permits basic local exchange revenues to be increased by 0.94% as determined by the increase in the Gross Domestic Product - Price Index (GDP-PI). Verizon's proposal increases basic local revenues by 0.92%. Rates for non-basic services can be increased by up to 10% per category. All five of Verizon's non-basic service categories are well within the allowable increase. Units used in this filing have been updated to June 30, 2009.

The following tariff pages from the General Services Tariff have been revised:

A2. GENERAL REGULATIONS

- (7) During the period of Vacation Service, no installations, moves, changes or maintenance will be provided. Changes to billing address will be allowed.
- (8) The customer may request a restoration date in advance of the maximum allowable vacation period, otherwise complete service and billing will be restored on the last day of the maximum allowable vacation period of nine (9) months.

b. Application of Charges

Business Service

The charge for business service during the period of suspension is as follows:

Business	$ 16.90 (I)
Business Rotary	20.12

- (1) During the period the customer is furnished Vacation Service, Miscellaneous Calling Services directly associated with the line service will not be charged.

Any Miscellaneous Services not directly associated with the line service, such as Directory Listing or Operator Service, will continue at the standard tariff rates.

- (2) A Seasonal Service Establishment Charge as specified in Section A4.3.9 of this Tariff shall apply at the time a business customer requests Vacation Service.

No service order charges apply to restore service at the completion of the Vacation Service period.

- (3) The federal End User Access Charge specified in Tariff FCC No. 14 is applicable during Vacation Service.

c. Service Suspension Option for Residential Customers

Residential Customers may request a temporary suspension of service for a period of at least one month up to nine months. This option is not available for residential message rate service and Basic Calling Service, a Verizon local bundled service. This service is not available to Lifeline customers. There will be no charge to customers for the temporary suspension option. During the suspension period there is no inward or outward service, installations, moves, changes or maintenance provided. Inward calls will be referred to the call number of another station in the same or a distant exchange as specified by the customer, for 30 days, to any number the customer specifies.

The services the customer subscribed to prior to temporary service suspension are not retained for reconnection. At the time the residential customer requests reconnection, the customer must subscribe to services of choice based on service availability. Nonrecurring charges, specified in Section A4, are not applicable to restore prior services. The customer must request a restoration date in advance of the maximum allowable suspension period, or residential flat rate billing will be charge beginning on the last day of the maximum allowable temporary service suspension period of nine months.

A3. BASIC LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICE

A3.1 General

- .1 This Tariff specifies rate schedules applicable for grades and classes of local exchange service ordered.
- .2 Exchange rate schedules are applied according to the total number of main station lines and PBX trunks in the local service area.
- .3 Exchange Service Areas for each exchange are identified on maps filed in Section A200, Local Exchange Service Area Maps and Descriptions, of this Tariff.
- .4 The rates for service and equipment not specifically shown in this section are presented in other sections of this Tariff. (See Note 3)
- .5 Service charges, as covered in Section A4., are applicable to the provision of basic local exchange service.
- .6 Pursuant to passage of the Telecommunications Access Systems Act of 1991 by the Florida Legislature during the 1991 session, a monthly surcharge shall be imposed on all local exchange telecommunications company customers on an individual access line basis, except that such surcharge shall not be imposed upon more than 25 basic telecommunications access lines per account bill rendered. The Commission shall determine the amount of the surcharge; however, in no case shall the amount exceed 25 cents per line per month. The surcharge shall appear on the initial bill to the customer and itemized at least once annually.

.3 Regrouping Procedures

a. Whenever the number of access lines in the local calling area of an exchange increases or decreases to the extent that such exchange would fall into a different rate group, a revised Tariff shall be filed for authority to reclassify the exchange to its appropriate group. The effective date of the proposed rate change shall be the effective date of the next directory for the affected exchange or 60 days after the date of filing the tariff whichever is later.

(1) The rate group in which an exchange falls shall be determined by the peak number of access lines in the exchange's local calling area since the effective date of the preceding directory.

A3.3 Monthly Exchange Rates

.1 General

a. Monthly exchange rates shown in A3.2 are applicable, in each exchange, for grades and classes of basic local exchange service offered.

.2 Message Rate Service - Individual Line

a. Subscribers to business or residence message rate service are regularly billed monthly in advance at the rate quoted in this tariff for the class of service furnished. Messages in excess of the monthly allowance are billed monthly in arrears. Local messages not used in one month are not credited to the subscriber's account for any other month service is rendered.

b. Subscribers are entitled to the number of messages specified in A3.2.2 to all central office lines bearing the designations of exchanges listed in A3.5, Local Calling Area, for the respective exchange.

c. Business Message Rate Service and Residence Message Rate Service are available in all exchanges and in all new rate groups. See Section A3.2.2 for specific rates by rate group.

d. Rules and regulations covering the provision of message rate service are as specified in Section A2.3.2.

.4 Transitional Lifeline Assistance Program

a. General

(1) Transitional Lifeline Assistance is a state program which provides a 30% reduction of the applicable monthly exchange flat rate for residential basic local service for subscribers who no longer qualify for the Lifeline Assistance Program.

b. Regulations

(2) A Lifeline Assistance subscriber who requests this service will receive the discounted rate for a period of one (1) year from the date the subscriber ceases to be qualified for the Lifeline Assistance Program.

.5 Native American Lifeline

a. Residential customers who reside on federally recognized tribal lands are eligible to receive additional enhanced federal Lifeline support in order to reduce the price for basic local telephone service.

b. An individual living on tribal lands shall qualify for an additional enhanced federal Lifeline credit of up to $25.00 per month if the individual participates in any state or federal programs identified in the preceding Section 3.4.3 or one of the following assistance programs:

- Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance
- Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families
- Head Start (only those meeting its income qualifying standard)
- National School Lunch Program (free meals program only)

c. If a resident of a federally recognized tribal land satisfies the state's Lifeline eligibility criteria as defined in Section 3.4.3, the resident will receive the state support, as well as the additional enhanced federal support. Lifeline customers residing on tribal lands will pay no less than $1.00 per month for basic local telephone service.

d. The additional enhanced federal credit will be available to Lifeline customers who reside on tribal lands in the following exchanges:

Tribal Land	Exchange	Credit
Seminole Tribe, Tampa Reservation	Tampa	$5.32 (I)

A13. MISCELLANEOUS SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS

A13.25 Remote Call Forwarding

.1 General

- a. Remote Call Forwarding (RCF) is a service whereby a call placed from a station (the originating station) to a subscriber's (the RCF subscriber) telephone number in one exchange (the call forwarding location) is automatically forwarded by Telephone Company central office equipment to another station designated by the RCF subscriber (the terminating station).
- b. RCF Service will be provided subject to the following limitations:
 - (1) RCF service is offered subject to availability of suitable facilities.
 - (2) RCF is offered as an Individual service or as an additional feature with multiline hunt Foreign Exchange Service for overflow when the Foreign Exchange Service is busy. Each Remote Call Forwarding service allows for forwarding one call at a given time. An additional service feature is necessary for each additional call to be forwarded simultaneously.
 - (3) RCF service is not offered where the terminating station is a public telephone.
 - (4) The Telephone Company will not provide identification of the originating telephone number to the RCF subscriber.
 - (5) Transmission characteristics may vary depending on the distance and routing necessary to complete the remotely forwarded call.
 - (6) RCF is not represented as suitable for satisfactory transmission of data.
 - (7) Remote Call Forwarding to another RCF number is not permitted.
 - (8) RCF is provided on the condition that the subscriber subscribes to sufficient RCF features and facilities to adequately handle calls to the RCF subscriber without interfering with or impairing any services offered by the Telephone Company.
 - (9) When the RCF number is to be located in a multioffice exchange, the Company will determine the serving central office.
 - (10) Remote Call Forwarding will be provided for local calling where the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are both located in the same exchange. Further, Remote Calling Forwarding will be provided for local calling on an interexchange basis in those instances where the exchange serving the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are within an Extended Area Service arrangement as specified in Section A3 of this tariff.
 - (11) Remote Call Forwarding will be provided when the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are located within Extended Calling Service exchanges as specified in Section A3.15.2a. of this tariff. The usage rates for calls between ECS exchanges will be those specified in Section A3.15.3a.
 - (12) Remote Call Forwarding service cannot be used for toll by-pass.
 - (13) Remote Call Forwarding international is not allowed.
- c. One listing in the alphabetical section of the directory covering the exchange in which the Call Forwarding central office is located is provided without additional charge.
- d. The minimum service period for this service is two months.

.2 Rates and Charges

- a. The following charges are for the Remote Call Forwarding feature and additional access facilities only and are in addition to applicable charges for service and equipment with which it is used:

	Monthly Rate

- (7) During the period of Vacation Service, no installations, moves, changes or maintenance will be provided. Changes to billing address will be allowed.
- (8) The customer may request a restoration date in advance of the maximum allowable vacation period, otherwise complete service and billing will be restored on the last day of the maximum allowable vacation period of nine (9) months.

b. Application of Charges

Business Service

The charge for business service during the period of suspension is as follows:

Business	$ 16. 72 90 (l)
Business Rotary	20.12

- (1) During the period the customer is furnished Vacation Service, Miscellaneous Calling Services directly associated with the line service will not be charged.

Any Miscellaneous Services not directly associated with the line service, such as Directory Listing or Operator Service, will continue at the standard tariff rates.

- (2) A Seasonal Service Establishment Charge as specified in Section A4.3.9 of this Tariff shall apply at the time a business customer requests Vacation Service.

No service order charges apply to restore service at the completion of the Vacation Service period.

- (3) The federal End User Access Charge specified in Tariff FCC No. 14 is applicable during Vacation Service.

c. Service Suspension Option for Residential Customers

Residential Customers may request a temporary suspension of service for a period of at least one month up to nine months. This option is not available for residential message rate service and Basic Calling Service, a Verizon local bundled service. This service is not available to Lifeline customers. There will be no charge to customers for the temporary suspension option. During the suspension period there is no inward or outward service, installations, moves, changes or maintenance provided. Inward calls will be referred to the call number of another station in the same or a distant exchange as specified by the customer, for 30 days, to any number the customer specifies.

The services the customer subscribed to prior to temporary service suspension are not retained for reconnection. At the time the residential customer requests reconnection, the customer must subscribe to services of choice based on service availability. Nonrecurring charges, specified in Section A4, are not applicable to restore prior services. The customer must request a restoration date in advance of the maximum allowable suspension period, or residential flat rate billing will be charge beginning on the last day of the maximum allowable temporary service suspension period of nine months.

A3. BASIC LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICE

A3.1 General

- .1 This Tariff specifies rate schedules applicable for grades and classes of local exchange service ordered.
- .2 Exchange rate schedules are applied according to the total number of main station lines and PBX trunks in the local service area.
- .3 Exchange Service Areas for each exchange are identified on maps filed in Section A200, Local Exchange Service Area Maps and Descriptions, of this Tariff.
- .4 The rates for service and equipment not specifically shown in this section are presented in other sections of this Tariff. (See Note 3)
- .5 Service charges, as covered in Section A4., are applicable to the provision of basic local exchange service.
- .6 Pursuant to passage of the Telecommunications Access Systems Act of 1991 by the Florida Legislature during the 1991 session, a monthly surcharge shall be imposed on all local exchange telecommunications company customers on an individual access line basis, except that such surcharge shall not be imposed upon more than 25 basic telecommunications access lines per account bill rendered. The Commission shall determine the amount of the surcharge; however, in no case shall the amount exceed 25 cents per line per month. The surcharge shall appear on the initial bill to the customer and itemized at least once annually.

.3 Regrouping Procedures

a. Whenever the number of access lines in the local calling area of an exchange increases or decreases to the extent that such exchange would fall into a different rate group, a revised Tariff shall be filed for authority to reclassify the exchange to its appropriate group. The effective date of the proposed rate change shall be the effective date of the next directory for the affected exchange or 60 days after the date of filing the tariff whichever is later.

(1) The rate group in which an exchange falls shall be determined by the peak number of access lines in the exchange's local calling area since the effective date of the preceding directory.

A3.3 Monthly Exchange Rates

.1 General

a. Monthly exchange rates shown in A3.2 are applicable, in each exchange, for grades and classes of basic local exchange service offered.

.2 Message Rate Service - Individual Line

a. Subscribers to business or residence message rate service are regularly billed monthly in advance at the rate quoted in this tariff for the class of service furnished. Messages in excess of the monthly allowance are billed monthly in arrears. Local messages not used in one month are not credited to the subscriber's account for any other month service is rendered.

b. Subscribers are entitled to the number of messages specified in A3.2.2 to all central office lines bearing the designations of exchanges listed in A3.5, Local Calling Area, for the respective exchange.

c. Business Message Rate Service and Residence Message Rate Service are available in all exchanges and in all new rate groups. See Section A3.2.2 for specific rates by rate group.

d. Rules and regulations covering the provision of message rate service are as specified in Section A2.3.2.

.4 Transitional Lifeline Assistance Program

a. General

(1) Transitional Lifeline Assistance is a state program which provides a 30% reduction of the applicable monthly exchange flat rate for residential basic local service for subscribers who no longer qualify for the Lifeline Assistance Program.

b. Regulations

(2) A Lifeline Assistance subscriber who requests this service will receive the discounted rate for a period of one (1) year from the date the subscriber ceases to be qualified for the Lifeline Assistance Program.

.5 Native American Lifeline

a. Residential customers who reside on federally recognized tribal lands are eligible to receive additional enhanced federal Lifeline support in order to reduce the price for basic local telephone service.

b. An individual living on tribal lands shall qualify for an additional enhanced federal Lifeline credit of up to $25.00 per month if the individual participates in any state or federal programs identified in the preceding Section 3.4.3 or one of the following assistance programs:

- Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance
- Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families
- Head Start (only those meeting its income qualifying standard)
- National School Lunch Program (free meals program only)

c. If a resident of a federally recognized tribal land satisfies the state's Lifeline eligibility criteria as defined in Section 3.4.3, the resident will receive the state support, as well as the additional enhanced federal support. Lifeline customers residing on tribal lands will pay no less than $1.00 per month for basic local telephone service.

d. The additional enhanced federal credit will be available to Lifeline customers who reside on tribal lands in the following exchanges:

A13. MISCELLANEOUS SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS

A13.25 Remote Call Forwarding

.1 General

- a. Remote Call Forwarding (RCF) is a service whereby a call placed from a station (the originating station) to a subscriber's (the RCF subscriber) telephone number in one exchange (the call forwarding location) is automatically forwarded by Telephone Company central office equipment to another station designated by the RCF subscriber (the terminating station).
- b. RCF Service will be provided subject to the following limitations:
 - (1) RCF service is offered subject to availability of suitable facilities.
 - (2) RCF is offered as an Individual service or as an additional feature with multiline hunt Foreign Exchange Service for overflow when the Foreign Exchange Service is busy. Each Remote Call Forwarding service allows for forwarding one call at a given time. An additional service feature is necessary for each additional call to be forwarded simultaneously.
 - (3) RCF service is not offered where the terminating station is a public telephone.
 - (4) The Telephone Company will not provide identification of the originating telephone number to the RCF subscriber.
 - (5) Transmission characteristics may vary depending on the distance and routing necessary to complete the remotely forwarded call.
 - (6) RCF is not represented as suitable for satisfactory transmission of data.
 - (7) Remote Call Forwarding to another RCF number is not permitted.
 - (8) RCF is provided on the condition that the subscriber subscribes to sufficient RCF features and facilities to adequately handle calls to the RCF subscriber without interfering with or impairing any services offered by the Telephone Company.
 - (9) When the RCF number is to be located in a multioffice exchange, the Company will determine the serving central office.
 - (10) Remote Call Forwarding will be provided for local calling where the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are both located in the same exchange. Further, Remote Calling Forwarding will be provided for local calling on an interexchange basis in those instances where the exchange serving the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are within an Extended Area Service arrangement as specified in Section A3 of this tariff.
 - (11) Remote Call Forwarding will be provided when the RCF telephone number and the terminating station are located within Extended Calling Service exchanges as specified in Section A3.15.2a. of this tariff. The usage rates for calls between ECS exchanges will be those specified in Section A3.15.3a.
 - (12) Remote Call Forwarding service cannot be used for toll by-pass.
 - (13) Remote Call Forwarding international is not allowed.
- c. One listing in the alphabetical section of the directory covering the exchange in which the Call Forwarding central office is located is provided without additional charge.
- d. The minimum service period for this service is two months.

.2 Rates and Charges
