Convenience Fee Waiver

Overview

The Convenience Fee Waiver special promotion will be offered from June 11, 2010 until July 1, 2010. During this period, the convenience fee which would normally apply for a payment made with a Company representative will be waived for customers who speak to a customer sales representative to pay their bill and receive information about product and services.

Specifics

Residential customers who call to pay their bill and agree to have a representative in the sales and service channel handle the payment will not incur the $5.00 convenience fee charge during the promotional period.

There is a maximum of one (1) waiver per account during the promotional period.
