ORDER CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

By letter dated April 28, 1989, Intercoastal Utilities, Inc. (Intercoastal) requested approval of a test year ending December 31, 1989, for a proposed rate increase in St. Johns County. By letter dated May 24, 1989, the Chairman of this Commission approved its request.

By letter dated September 1, 1989, Intercoastal requested an extension of time within which to file the minimum filing requirements, proposed tariff sheets and filing fee. By letter dated September 18, 1989, the Chairman granted the requested extension of time.

On September 26, 1989, the Board of County Commissioners for St. Johns County rescinded its prior resolution of July 25, 1985, by which it had made privately owned water and wastewater utilities in St. Johns County subject to this Commission's jurisdiction.

By letter dated November 2, 1989, Intercoastal informed this Commission of its intent to file its application for increased rates before the Board of County Commissioners for St. Johns County. Intercoastal suggested that we may prefer to close this docket and stated that it had no objection to such action.

Since this docket was opened to process Intercoastal's application for increased rates and Intercoastal now intends to
