ORDER GRANTING RELIEF FROM COST-OF-SERVICE STUDY

BY THE COMMISSION:

On February 17, 1989 in Order No. 20768 we ordered Withlacoochee River Electric Cooperative, Inc. (WREC) to file a cost-of-service study to support a contribution in aid of construction (CIAC) charge for large power users within 120 days of the effective date of that order. The Order became effective on October 2, 1989 after we denied Florida Home Builders Association's (FHBA) Petition for Reconsideration.

WREC has now modified its tariffs and no longer collects CIAC from any class of customers. WREC therefore seeks to be relieved from the cost-of-service requirement of Order No. 20768.

We agree with WREC that there is no longer a reason for it to conduct the cost-of-service study. Because WREC no longer collects a CIAC charge from any customer, it is not necessary for it to justify a CIAC charge. Therefore, our requirement that WREC file a cost-of-service study pertaining to its CIAC for large power consumers is now moot.
