FINAL ORDER

BY THE COMMISSION:

On March 7, 1990 we voted to cancel Dammam International Corporation's (Dammam or the Company) certificate for failure to maintain a correct and current address on file with our Division of Records and Reporting. On April 3, 1990, PAA Order No. 22763 canceling Dammam's certificate was issued. Protests were due by April 24, 1990. Dammam filed a protest on April 18, 1990.

Dammam's response indicates an intent to file a change of address as part of the normal reporting process. The check used to pay Dammam's Regulatory Assessment Fee reflects the correct address. Furthermore, the Regulatory Assessment Fee Return Form filed by Dammam contains a correction that might reasonably be construed as an attempt to update our records and comply with Rule 25-24.520(1). While Rule 25-24.520(1) contemplates a separate and distinct reporting of a change of address, Dammam's violation does not indicate an intent to violate the rule and does not rise to the level that might warrant cancellation of its certificate.

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED that Dammam International Corporation's Certificate of Public Necessity and Convenience, Certificate No. 1931 shall not be canceled pursuant to Order no. 22763. It is further
