ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION
AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On September 21, 1989, this Commission issued Order No. 21928 requiring Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) and Florida Power Corporation to file within two years of that Order site-specific economic cost studies for each nuclear generating station, to determine if it would be cost justified to retain non-contaminated portions of the nuclear plant assets for use with a new generating station.

On August 15, 1991, FPL filed a motion requesting to extend the filing of its studies until November 30, 1991. FPL states that "[d]ue to the use by FPL of a new computer data base with other sources, which was not expected, FPL cannot complete and file the studies by September 22, 1991".

In consideration of the foregoing, it is

ORDRED by the Florida Public Service Commission that Florida Power & Light Company's motion for extension to filing the reports referred to in this Order is hereby granted. It is further

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by the Commission's final action in this matter may request: 1) reconsideration of the decision by filing a motion for reconsideration with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting within fifteen (15) days of the issuance of this order in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code; or 2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility or the First District Court of Appeal in the case of a water or sewer utility by filing a notice of appeal with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting and filing a copy of the notice of appeal and the filing fee with the appropriate court. This filing must be completed within thirty (30) days after the issuance of this order, pursuant to Rule 9.110, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. The notice of appeal must be in the form specified in Rule 9.900 (a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
