The utility was made aware of its billing error and is in the process of reclassifying the water accounts to general service, crediting the customer's accounts for the incorrect billing for wastewater service and deleting the wastewater accounts. The water revenues were not affected by the reclassification because the rates are the same for both classes of water service. As a result of the incorrect billing for wastewater service, we find it appropriate to reduce wastewater revenues by $571.

It is, therefore,
