ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS OF
THE SALVATION ARMY CAMP KEYSTONE AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On October 15, 1992, the Salvation Army Camp Keystone (Salvation Army) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of its nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. The Salvation Army is a Camp located at Route 3, Box 757 in Starke, Florida. Captain W. Edward Hobgood, Camp Director, filed the application on behalf of the Salvation Army.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(1)(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. In its application, the Salvation Army requested nonjurisdictional status as a provider of both water and wastewater services. However, after discussions with the Camp, it was determined that wastewater service is provided by a septic tank. Water service from a well owned by the Salvation Army is provided only to the Camp, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses.

In addition, the application form states that pursuant to Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, anyone knowingly making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Captain Hobgood acknowledged that he is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.

Since, based on the facts as represented, the Salvation Army will not be providing water and wastewater service to the public for compensation, we find that it is not a utility pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the Salvation Army or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that we may review the matter to determine whether nonjurisdictional status is still appropriate.

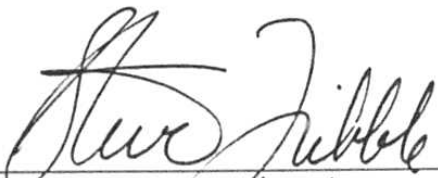

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that, based upon the facts as represented, the Salvation Army Camp Keystone, Post Office Box 270848, Tampa, Florida 33688-0848, is not a water and wastewater utility subject to this Commission's jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. It is further ORDERED that should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the Salvation Army Camp Keystone or any successors in interest, shall inform this Commission within 30 days of such a change so that we may re-evaluate the Salvation Army's nonjurisdictional status. It is further ORDERED that Docket No. 921069-WS is hereby closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission this 8th day of December, 1992.
