ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS
OF P & J MARINA, INC. AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On September 10, 1992, P & J Marina, Inc. (P & J or Marina) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of its nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. P & J's system is located at 21101 Northeast 100 Avenue in Earleton, Florida. Mr. Paul V. Santaniello, President, filed the application on behalf of the Marina.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. According to the application, water service is provided only to the Marina, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses.

In addition, the application form states that pursuant to Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, anyone knowingly making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Mr. Santaniello acknowledged that he is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.

Based on the facts as represented, we find that P & J is not a utility pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. It is further ORDERED that should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of P & J Marina, Inc. or any successors in interest, shall inform this Commission within 30 days of such a change so that we may re-evaluate the Marina's nonjurisdictional status. It is further
