ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS OF ROSIE'S AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On November 13, 1992, Rosie's filed an application with this Commission for recognition of its nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. Rosie's is a bar located at State Road 26 and Country Road 241 North, Newberry, Florida. Ms. Kimberly Parham, Manager and primary contact person, filed the application on behalf of Rosie's, which is owned by P & D Enterprises (P & D).

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. According to the application, water service is provided only to bar, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses. Wastewater service is provided by a septic tank.

In addition, pursuant to Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-30.060(2)(f), Florida Administrative Code, anyone knowingly making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Ms. Parham acknowledged that she is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.
