GTE of Florida, Incorporated (GTE) is a certificated provider of local exchange service in Florida. As a certificated Local Exchange Company (LEC), GTE is subject to our jurisdiction pursuant to Chapter 364, Florida Statutes.

On January 27, 1993, GTE filed a tariff proposing to introduce a new service known as CentraNet Customer Moves and Changes (CMAC). CMAC is a service that allows CentraNet customers to change their system's calling features from their own premises. For example, a customer can swap telephone number assignments among different phone lines. A customer may also choose to remove a call forwarding feature from one station and place it on another. CMAC allows CentraNet customers to change many of the features to which they subscribe. Currently, calling feature changes are made at the central office.

This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy.
