ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS OF HOUSE OF PRAYER MINISTRIES WATER SUPPLY AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On February 21, 1994, the House of Prayer Ministries Water Supply (House of Prayer) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of its nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. House of Prayer's water system, located at 455 Adams Avenue, Lake Placid, Florida 33852, will be constructed as soon as the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) issues it a permit. However, DEP will not issue a permit until House of Prayer is certificated or exempt. Mr. Dennis E. Durden, House of Prayer's resident agent and primary contact person, filed the application on behalf of House of Prayer.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(2) and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. According to the application, water service will be provided solely to the church, there will be no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service will be treated or recovered as operational expenses. Wastewater service will be provided by septic tank.

In addition, pursuant to Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-30.060(2)(f), Florida Administrative Code, anyone knowingly making a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead is guilty of a misdemeanor. By signing the application, Mr. Durden acknowledged that he is aware of Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, and the penalties for making false statements in the application.

Based on the facts as represented, we find that House of Prayer is not a utility pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. Accordingly, House of Prayer is not subject to this Commission's jurisdiction. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, a representative of House of Prayer or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that its nonjurisdictional status may be reevaluated.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that, based upon the facts as represented, House of Prayer Ministries Water Supply, 455 Adams Avenue, Lake Placid, Florida 33852, is not a water utility subject to this Commission's jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. It is further ORDERED that should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of House of Prayer Ministries Water Supply or any successors in interest, shall inform this Commission within 30 days of such a change so that we may reevaluate House of Prayer's nonjurisdictional status. It is further ORDERED that this Docket is hereby closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission, this 27th day of April, 1994.
