ORDER APPROVING TARIFF

BY THE COMMISSION:

Through this tariff filing, AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc. (ATT-C) is requesting that it be allowed to extend its LDMTS Basic Schedule Special Discount (True USA) promotion from January 10, 1995 to January 9, 1996. The LDMTS Basic Schedule Special Discount promotion offers discounts ranging from 10% to 30% based on combined monthly usage.

Rule 25-24.485(1)(i), Florida Administrative Code, restricts promotional offerings to 90 days during any one year period. We do not object to the True USA promotion lasting more than 90 days. We are currently considering revising this rule to allow promotions to run longer than 90 days. Therefore, upon consideration, we shall waive Rule 25-24.485(1)(i), Florida Administrative Code, to allow ATT-C to offer the lower rates over the extended period of time.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that AT&T Communications of the Southern States Inc.'s request for a waiver of Rule 25-24.485(1)(i), Florida Administrative Code, is approved pursuant to Rule 25-24.455(4), Florida Administrative Code, from January 10, 1995 to January 9, 1996, as it applies to the promotion for True USA service. It is further ORDERED that if a protest is filed in accordance with the requirements set forth below, the tariff shall remain in effect with any increase in revenues held subject to refund pending resolution of the protest. It is further ORDERED that if no protest is filed in accordance with the requirements set forth below, this docket shall be closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission, this 26th day of January, 1995.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

The Commission's decision on this tariff is interim in nature and will become final, unless a person whose substantial interests are affected by the action proposed files a petition for a formal proceeding, as provided by Rule 25-22.036(4), Florida Administrative Code, in the form provided by Rule 25-22.036(7)(a)(d) and (e), Florida Administrative Code. This petition must be received by the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, 101 East Gaines Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0870, by the close of business on February 16, 1995.

In the absence of such a petition, this order shall become final on the day subsequent to the above date.

Any objection or protest filed in this docket before the issuance date of this Order is considered abandoned unless it satisfies the foregoing conditions and is renewed within the specified protest period.

If this Order becomes final on the date described above, any party adversely affected may request judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility or by the First District Court of Appeal in the case of a water or wastewater utility by filing a notice of appeal with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting and filing a copy of the notice of appeal and the filing fee with the appropriate court. This filing must be completed within thirty (30) days of the date this Order becomes final, pursuant to Rule 9.110, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. The notice of appeal must be in the form specified in Rule 9.900(a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
