the application in order for the application to be processed. The United States Postal Service neither returned the receipt, nor correspondence regarding the RAFs was not.

By Order No. PSC-99-1816-PAA-TC, issued on September 20, 1999, we imposed a $500 fine and required payment of the fine and fees or Jungle Village's certificate would be canceled. After the Order was issued, Ms. Kim Smith, representative of Jungle Village, called our staff and advised that she had requested in 1998 the cancellation of the certificate. She further advised that she would provide to our staff a copy of her request and pay the outstanding balance in full. On October 4, 1999, we received a copy of the letter dated March 22, 1998. We received Jungle Village's RAFs, including penalty and interest charges for 1998 on October 11, 1999. Our staff sought to contact Jungle Village to inquire about the outstanding balance from 1992. On November 5, 1999, we received Jungle Village's check for the 1992 penalty and interest charges.

Jungle Village has complied with the provision of Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code, by providing adequate notice in writing of its request for cancellation of its PATS certificate and by submitting its RAFs for the year 1998. Accordingly, we find it appropriate to cancel PATS Certificate No. 3097, effective March 22, 1998. Jungle Village shall return its certificate to this Commission.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that Jungle Village, Inc.'s Certificate No. 3097 to provide Pay Telephone services is hereby canceled, effective March 22, 1998. It is further ORDERED that Jungle Village, Inc. shall return its certificate to this Commission. It is further ORDERED that this Docket is closed.
