Commission that the action discussed herein is preliminary in

Kernan Associates, Ltd. d/b/a St. Johns Estates (St. Johns Estates) has applied for a certificate to provide Alternative Local

Local Exchange Companies, as set forth in Section 364.337(1), Florida Statutes.

If this Order becomes final and effective, it shall serve as St. Johns Estates' certificate. St. Johns Estates should, therefore, retain this Order as proof of certification. The Commission is vested with jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 364.335 and 364.337, Florida Statutes.

ALEC providers are subject to Chapter 25-24, Florida Administrative Code, Part XV, Rules Governing Telecommunications Service Provided by Alternative Local Exchange Companies. ALEC providers are also required to comply with all applicable provisions of Chapter 364, Florida Statutes, and Chapters 25-4, Florida Administrative Code.

In addition, Section 364.337(2), Florida Statutes, requires ALECs which provide basic local telecommunications service to provide access to 911 services. This Commission has no rules specifying the 911 services that either an Incumbent Local Exchange Company (ILEC) or an ALEC must provide; however, 911 service that is inferior to that provided by the ILEC would clearly not be in the public interest. Accordingly, we find that Section 364.337(2), Florida Statutes, requires ALECs which provide basic local telecommunications services to provide at least the same level of 911 services as that provided by the ILEC serving the same area.

Further, under Section 364.336, Florida Statutes, certificate holders must pay a minimum annual Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAFs) of $50 if the certificate was active during any portion of the calendar year. A RAFs Return notice will be mailed each December to St. Johns Estates for payment in January. Neither the cancellation of the certificate nor the failure to receive a RAFs Return notice shall relieve St. Johns Estates from its obligation to pay RAFs.

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that we hereby grant Certificate No. 7737 to Kernan Associates, Ltd. d/b/a St. Johns Estates, which shall authorize it to provide Alternative
