DOCKET NO. 010001-EI
ORDER NO. PSC-01-2110-PCO-EI
ISSUED: October 24, 2001

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

By Order No. PSC-01-0665-PCO-EI, issued March 16, 2001, ("Procedural Order") procedures for this docket were established. Among other things, the Procedural Order identified a schedule of controlling dates for this docket. The Procedural Order identifies October 24, 2001, as the filing deadline for rebuttal testimony and exhibits. (By Order No. PSC-01-1881-PCO-EI, issued September 20, 2001, the deadline for rebuttal testimony and exhibits related only to supplemental testimony filed by Florida Power Corporation was set for October 31, 2001.)

By Order No. PSC-01-2025-PCO-EI, issued October 11, 2001, the Florida Industrial Power Users Group ("FIPUG") was granted a two-day extension of time, from October 10, 2001, to October 12, 2001, to file its intervenor testimony and exhibits in this docket. On October 11, 2001, Tampa Electric Company ("TECO") filed a motion to extend the time for filing its rebuttal testimony and exhibits by two days, from October 24, 2001, to October 26, 2001. In its motion, TECO states that it did not object to FIPUG's requested extension with the understanding that FIPUG would agree to a two-day extension for TECO to file any rebuttal testimony responsive to FIPUG's direct testimony. TECO indicates that FIPUG and the Office of Public Counsel state no objection to the requested extension.

Upon consideration, TECO's motion for extension of time is granted. The brevity of the requested extension should not unduly prejudice any party, and the parties to this docket have stated no objection to the extension. This Order is issued pursuant to the authority granted by Rule 28-106.211, Florida Administrative Code, which provides that the presiding officer before whom a case is pending may issue any orders necessary to effectuate discovery, prevent delay, and promote the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of all aspects of the case.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural, or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
