25-4.0161(2), Florida Administrative Code, the form and applicable fees are due to the Florida Public Service Commission by January 30 of the subsequent year. All entities that apply for certification receive a copy of our rules governing Alternative Local Exchange Telephone (ALEC) and Interexchange Telephone (IXC) services.

We received notice that this company had filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. In addition, we received a letter from the company requesting cancellation of its certificates and asking that any unpaid Regulatory Assessment Fees be written off as no funds exist.

Chapter 11 of Section 109 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code provides for reorganization by business entities. The filing of a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 11 invokes an automatic injunction known as the Automatic Stay, codified in Bankruptcy Code Section 362. Section 362(b)(5) provides that, for governments, the filing of the petition does not operate as a stay "of the enforcement of a judgment, other than a money judgment, obtained in an actual proceeding by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit's police or regulatory power." (emphasis added) Thus, it would appear that we are not enjoined from exercising our police powers to protect public health, safety and welfare, but are enjoined from exercising our regulatory authority seeking to collect a debt. However, in this case, the company has requested cancellation of its certificates. Under those circumstances, this Commission is free to do so. We note that the Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services will be notified that the past due RAFs should not be sent to the Comptroller's Office for collection, but that permission for the Commission to write-off the uncollectible amounts should be requested.

Accordingly, we find it appropriate to cancel Alternative Local Exchange Telephone (ALEC) and Interexchange Telephone (IXC) Certificate Nos. 7436 (IXC) and 7437 (ALEC), effective September 9, 2002. If Advanced's certificates are canceled in accordance with this Order, Advanced shall immediately cease and desist providing Alternative Local Exchange Telephone (ALEC) and Interexchange Telephone (IXC) services in Florida. We are vested with jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 364.336, 364.285, and 364.335, Florida Statutes.
