ISSUED: August 24, 2006

ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA CABLE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ASSOCIATION'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION OF DOCUMENT NO. 02355-06

An administrative hearing was held in this matter on March 29-30, 2006.

On March 16, 2006, Florida Cable Telecommunications Association (FCTA) filed a request for specified confidential classification. In its request, FCTA seeks confidential classification of portions of its Answers and Objections to Staff's First Set of Interrogatories, Item Nos. 3(a) and 4(a), (Document No. 02355-06). Attachment A, attached hereto and incorporated herein, contains a detailed justification of the confidentiality of the information at issue. FCTA states that it treats this information as confidential and that it has not otherwise been released.

Florida law presumes that documents submitted to governmental agencies shall be public records. The only exceptions to this presumption are the specific statutory exemptions provided in the law and exemptions granted by governmental agencies pursuant to the specific terms of a statutory provision. This presumption is based on the concept that government should operate in the "sunshine." Rule 25-22.006 (4)(c), Florida Administrative Code, provides that it is the Company's burden to demonstrate that the documents fall into one of the statutory examples set out in Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, or to demonstrate that the information is proprietary confidential information, the disclosure of which will cause the Company or its ratepayers harm.

Section 364.183 (3), Florida Statutes, in pertinent part, provides:

The term “proprietary confidential business information” means information, regardless of form or characteristics, which is owned or controlled by the person or company, is intended to be and is treated by the person or company as private in that the disclosure of the information would cause harm to the ratepayers or the person’s or company’s business operations, and has not been disclosed unless disclosed pursuant to a statutory provision, an order of a court or administrative body, or private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public.

Based on the definition of proprietary confidential business information in Section 364.183 (3), Florida Statutes, it appears that the material described herein is proprietary business information in accordance with Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code. Disclosure of this information could harm FCTA by giving its competitors an unfair advantage in developing their own competitive strategies. As such, FCTA’s Request for Specified Confidential Classification for portions of the information contained in its Answers and Objections to Staff’s First Set of Interrogatories, Item Nos. 3(a) and 4(a), (Document No. 02355-06) is hereby granted.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by Commissioner Katrina J. Tew, as Prehearing Officer, that Florida Cable Telecommunications Association’s Request for Specified Confidential Classification of Document No. 02355-06, as set forth in Attachment A, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein, is granted. It is further

ORDERED that pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, the confidentiality granted to material specified herein shall expire eighteen (18) months from the date of the issuance of this Order, in the absence of a renewed request for confidentiality pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. It is further ORDERED that this Order will be the only notification by the Commission to the parties concerning the expiration of the confidentiality time period.

By ORDER of Commissioner Katrina J. Tew, as Prehearing Officer, this 24th day of August, 2006.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code; or (2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.

FCTA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION OF ITS
ANSWERS TO STAFF'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES (1-5)
INTERROGATORY NOS. 3.a. and 4.a., FILED MARCH 16, 2006 IN FLORIDA
DOCKET NOS. 050119-TP AND 050125 -TP

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. This information contains company specific proprietary information that is not publicly available. Specifically, the FCTA's answer to Staff's Interrogatory Nos. 3.a. and 4.a. contains CONFIDENTIAL information regarding the volume of transit traffic originated by FCTA Members that transits BellSouth's network for termination by the Small LECs, as well as the internal operating procedures of FCTA Members. This information is considered proprietary by the particular FCTA Members involved. This information is related to the FCTA's ongoing business affairs and operations and could be used by competitors to harm the competitive interests of the FCTA Members involved. Material for which confidential classification is sought is intended to be and is treated as private and confidential and has not been disclosed publicly or otherwise. Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, allows for an exemption from the disclosure requirements of section 119.07, Florida Statutes, when disclosure would "impair the competitive business of the provider of the information." Therefore, the information should be shielded from disclosure pursuant to section 119.07, Florida Statutes and section 24(a), Art. 1 of the State Constitution.
