ORDER ACKNOWLEDGING WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION

BY THE COMMISSION:

On July 20, 2007, Tampa Electric Company (TECO) filed a petition for a determination of need for a proposed electrical power plant in Polk County pursuant to Section 403.519, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.080, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.). The matter was scheduled for a formal administrative hearing on October 10-11, 2007.¹

On October 4, 2007, TECO filed a Notice of Withdrawal of its petition. This order addresses TECO's notice of withdrawal, and the ultimate disposition of Docket No. 070467-EI. We have jurisdiction pursuant to Section 403.519, Florida Statutes.

It is a well established legal principle that the plaintiff's right to take a voluntary dismissal is absolute.² Once a voluntary dismissal is taken, the trial court loses all jurisdiction over the matter, and cannot reinstate the action for any reason.³ Both of these legal principles have been recognized in administrative proceedings.⁴ In Saddlebrook Resorts, Inc. v. Wiregrass Ranch, Inc., 630 So. 2d 1123, 1128 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993), the court concluded that "the jurisdiction of any agency is activated when the permit application is filed . . . [and] is only lost by the agency when the permit is issued or denied or when the permit applicant withdraws its application prior to completion of the fact-finding process." In this case, the hearing has not yet occurred, so the fact-finding process is not complete. We therefore find it appropriate to acknowledge TECO's withdrawal of its petition as a matter of right, which is in accord with past

Commission decisions.⁵ We further find that the effect of TECO's voluntary withdrawal of its petition for determination of need is to divest us of further jurisdiction over this matter.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that this docket shall be closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission this 31st day of October, 2007.
