ORDER GRANTING THRIFTY CALL'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MAINTAIN CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS

On August 9, 2007, Thrifty Call, Inc. filed its Motion for Extension of Time to Maintain Confidentiality of Certain Documents granted confidentiality by Order No. PSC-06-0097-PCO-TP, issued February 10, 2006 and clarified by Order No. PSC-07-0679-CFO-TP, August 21, 2007. Specifically, Thrifty Call seeks to extend the confidential classification of Document No. 08538-04 and pages 48 through 48-18 of Document No. 09605-04. Thrifty Call asserts in its Motion that the extension should be granted because this docket remains open, and the confidential documents may be utilized in further discovery and at the hearing in this matter.

Florida law presumes that documents submitted to governmental agencies shall be public records. The only exceptions to this presumption are the specific statutory exemptions provided in the law and exemptions granted by governmental agencies pursuant to the specific terms of a statutory provision. This presumption is based on the concept that government should operate in the "sunshine." Rule 25-22.006(4)(c), Florida Administrative Code, provides that it is the Company's burden to demonstrate that the documents fall into one of the statutory examples set out in Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, or to demonstrate that the information is proprietary confidential information, the disclosure of which will cause the Company or its ratepayers harm.

Based on the definition of proprietary confidential business information in Section 364.183(3), Florida Statutes, it appears that the material described herein is proprietary business information in accordance with Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code. The information at issue has been retained by our staff since this matter remains open. This information has been previously granted confidential treatment, and Thrifty Call asserts that there is still a need to protect consumer-specific proprietary business information. Therefore, Thrifty Call's request shall be granted. The confidentiality period shall be extended for a period of 18 months from the issuance of this Order.
