ORDER ACKNOWLEDGING SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE
AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY'S WITHDRAWAL
OF ITS PROTEST OF ORDER NO. 22465

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company (Southern Bell or the Company) filed, on March 31, 1989, revisions to its Access and Private Line Tariffs which restructure both private line and special access line services. On February 7, 1990, Southern Bell filed a Protest to the Full Commission of Order No. 22465. Southern Bell stated that its protest was based on its understanding that Order No. 22465 required the Company to number every line of every page of every document in a request by Southern Bell for specified confidential classification. Based on subsequent discussions with Staff, the Company filed, on February 19, 1990, a withdrawal of its protest to the full Commission because it now understands that the intent of Order No. 22465 is that only those lines which it is asserted contain confidential information must be numbered. Therefore, we acknowledge Southern Bell's withdrawal of its protest of Order No. 22465.

Based on the foregoing, it is, therefore,

ORDERED by Commissioner John T. Herndon, Prehearing Officer, that Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company's withdrawal of its protest of Order No. 22465 is hereby acknowledged. Therefore, Order No. 22465 is hereby declared to be final and effective.
