Sprint Communications Company Limited Partnership, (hereinafter "Sprint") by and through its attorneys, hereby petitions the Commission for leave to intervene and participate as a party in the above-captioned proceeding pursuant to Rule 25-22.039, F.A.C. In support thereof, Sprint states the following:

stabilization plan is under review by this Commission.

4. Sprint is both a customer for Southern Bell access services and a competitor in the interexchange long distance market. The rates for these services are at issue in this docket in that any form of incentive regulation would effect the rates charged for these services.

Sprint has a substantial interest in a Commission determination with respect to these interests which are not otherwise represented in this proceeding.

6. Sprint respectfully requests that it be granted leave to intervene and participate as a party of record in the above-captioned proceeding and that Sprint be given the right to fully participate in any hearing, present testimony, conduct cross-examination and to file briefs.

7. Petitioners request that all pleadings and other documents be served upon:
