ORDER DENYING FPC'S MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

BY THE COMMISSION:

On May 20, 1992, Florida Power Corporation (FPC) filed a Motion to Consolidate. Pursuant to the Motion, FPC seeks to consolidate its nuclear decommissioning cost study and supporting testimony previously submitted in Docket No. 910981-EI into FPC's ongoing rate proceeding in Docket No. 910890-EI.

The hearing for Docket No. 910890-EI is scheduled to begin July 9, 1992. Because of the proximity of the rate hearing, and the voluminous amount of testimony that has already been filed in Docket No. 910890-EI, we find that it would be unwieldy to allow additional testimony and an additional subject matter at this late date. Thus, having reviewed the Motion, the Decommissioning Cost Study, and the supporting testimony, we find that FPC's Motion to Consolidate shall be denied.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED that Florida Power Corporation's Motion to Consolidate (DN 5137-92) shall be denied.

By ORDER of Commissioner Betty Easley, Commissioner and Prehearing Officer, this 18th day of JUNE, 1992.

120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
