DOCKET NUMBER 920699-TL
Petition By Residents of Alligator Point Requesting Extended Area Service (EAS) From Alligator Point
To Sopchoppy, Panacea, Crawfordville, St. Marks, and Tallahassee

Analysis Statement

The data collected in compliance with Docket Number 920699-TL, Order Number PSC-92-0911-PCO-TL, indicates that a community of interest does exist between Alligator Point customers and the Tallahassee area. The combined business and residential traffic reflects an average calling rate of [REDACTED] messages per access line per month.

The other routes studied reflect little or no community of interest as follows:

Alligator Point to Crawfordville - [REDACTED]	M/M/M
Alligator Point to Panacea - [REDACTED]	M/M/M
Alligator Point to Sopchoppy - [REDACTED]	M/M/M
Alligator Point to St. Marks - [REDACTED]	M/M/M

Alligator Point is a small exchange with only 445 access lines. Many of these customers also have residences in the Tallahassee area, thus the community of interest to that area. There are no known proposed changes in surface transportation between any two studied exchanges which would influence the development of a community of interest.

CENTRAL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF FLORIDA'S TRAFFIC STUDY AND REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

Central Telephone Company of Florida ("Centel" or the "Company"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code and Order No. PSC-92-0911-PCO-TL, files this Traffic Study and Request for Specified Confidential Classification for certain information included in the traffic study filed herewith, and says:

1. On November 2, 1992, the Florida Public Service Commission ("Commission") issued Order No. PSC-92-0911-PCO-TL, which required Centel to file certain traffic studies. The attachments to this request (the "traffic study") represent the Company's response to that Order.

2. Certain of the traffic study information is interLATA interexchange carrier ("IXC") traffic information which is proprietary confidential business information. See Order No. 20051 and Order No. 22983. A copy of the traffic study with the information Centel considers to be proprietary has been filed under a separate cover as Exhibit "A" to this pleading and has the confidential information highlighted for identification purposes. The highlighted information reflects AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc.'s ("AT&T") interLATA traffic data regarding relevant toll routes received from AT&T pursuant to a non-disclosure agreement. In accordance with Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, Centel has appended hereto as Exhibit "B" one edited copy of the traffic study with this confidential information blacked out ("redacted").

3. Commission Rule 25-22.006(4)(a) provides that a utility may satisfy its burden of proving that information is specified confidential material by demonstrating how the information falls under one or more of the available statutory examples. In the alternative, if no statutory example is available, the utility may satisfy its burden by including a justifying statement indicating what penalties or ill effects on Centel or its ratepayers will result from the disclosure of the information to the public. Centel is requesting that the Commission treat only interLATA IXC traffic information described above as confidential. Centel is identifying this confidential information on a line-by-line basis, and is appending such line-by-line identification hereto as Exhibit "C."

4. The traffic data relative to the interLATA routes at issue in this proceeding basically provide a blueprint of the toll usage over these various routes. The information contained in these traffic studies was obtained from AT&T with the express understanding that such information was proprietary confidential business information, and as such, should be protected from public disclosure in these proceedings. The same information is normally made available to Centel by AT&T on a confidential basis in order that Centel may accurately plan its network deployment based on actual and perceived traffic demand over the respective toll routes.

5. Although the traffic information is clearly necessary for a full examination of the merits of the extended area service request in this case, such information also contains data that indicates which routes at issue in this case contain the most concentrated traffic. The disclosure of such traffic patterns to the public would make available to AT&T's competitors highly valuable competitive information which such competitors could use to target the most lucrative routes. If the Commission were to publicly release the interLATA traffic data Centel has obtained from AT&T, not only would such public release competitively harm AT&T directly, but it also would almost certainly harm Centel because AT&T could hereafter withhold such information from Centel due to the threat of public release of such information. Of course, without accurate traffic data from the interexchange carriers, Centel would be severely hampered in its efforts to plan its network deployment, particularly with regard to situations where expansion may be needed.

6. The information for which confidential treatment is requested has not been disclosed, except pursuant to a protective agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public.

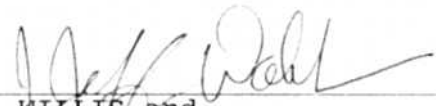

7. For all the foregoing reasons, Centel respectfully urges the Commission to classify the above-described and discussed interLATA traffic data as proprietary confidential business information pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, and as such exempt from Chapter 119, Florida Statutes.

WHEREFORE, Central Telephone Company of Florida moves the Commission to enter an Order declaring this information to be proprietary confidential business information pursuant to Section 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code.

DATED this 2nd day of November, 1992.

Respectfully submitted,

Demographic Description

Alligator Point is a peninsula located on the southeastern extremity of Franklin County and consists of a land mass less than two square miles. Most residents are second homes of people who live in the Tallahassee and south Georgia areas. There is no industry or viable commercial enterprise on the Point except for a marina, lounge and a campground with a retail store. This is primarily a haven for sportsfishermen and people enjoying the beach. As of April 1, 1990, Franklin County had a population of 8,967. There were 5,891 housing units in 1990. Personal income in 1989 was $51.4 million (including all sources). Per capita estimated income in 1989 was $11,770, compared to $15,696 in Leon County. The 1990 labor force was 5,459 with 321 or 5.9% unemployed. Franklin County consists of 545 square miles. Leon County consists of 656 square miles bordered on the north by the Georgia State Line, Gadsden County on the west, Jefferson County on the east and Wakulla County on the south. Tallahassee, the State Capital, is located in Leon County and contains numerous businesses, three hospitals, two universities, a community college and a regional airport. The population of Leon County is estimated to increase from 192,578 in 1989 to 219,000 by 1995 and 237,000 by 2000.

SEPT. 29, 1992

EAS to Alligator Point

The Central Telephone Company of Florida point-to-point traffic studies are for thirty days, from September 1, 1992 - September 30, 1992.

In some instances, the number of accounts varies in relationship to the number of main stations due to new installs, removals and final bills rendered during the period which may cause a variance of percentage in call volumes per account.
