Docket No. 920260-TL
Filed: December 18, 1992

MOTION TO HOLD SERVICE HEARINGS IN PALM BEACH COUNTY

The Citizens of Florida ("Citizens"), by and through Jack Shreve, Public Counsel, move the Commission to hold a public hearing in Palm Beach County.

1. The Commission has already held service hearings in Pensacola, Panama City, Jacksonville, Orlando, and Plantation. One more service hearing is currently scheduled for Miami on January 11, 1993.

2. Southern Bell serves a large number of customers in Palm Beach County, Florida, but no service hearing has been held there, nor is any service hearing presently scheduled.

3. Southern Bell's proposals have a profound impact on the rates paid by Southern Bell's customers in Palm Beach County. For example, Southern Bell has a proposal that requires customers to subscribe to local measured service if they wish to receive a discount on what they pay for long distance calls up to 40 miles away. The Commission should hear customers' opinions about this proposal.

4. There is still ample time to set and hold a hearing in Palm Beach County. The Commission does not intend to make a final decision in this case until May, 1993 at the earliest, and a service hearing could be held any time before the Commission makes its final decision.

5. In light of the profound impact of this case on the customers of Southern Bell and the number of customers served by Southern Bell in Palm Beach County, the Citizens request the Commission to hold a service hearing there.

Respectfully submitted,

Jack Shreve
Public Counsel
