SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

COMES NOW BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company ("Southern Bell" or "Company"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, and files its Request for Confidential Classification regarding a certain late-filed exhibit requested by Staff at the deposition of R. G. Barrere taken on February 9, 1993. In support of its Request, Southern Bell shows the following:

1. On February 9, 1993, the Staff of the Florida Public Service Commission conducted a deposition of R. G. Barrere, an employee of Southern Bell. During the course of the deposition, Staff requested that Mr. Barrere submit a certain late-filed exhibit.

2. Southern Bell has now gathered the exhibits, that being Exhibit No. 1, which contains confidential information. Therefore, Southern Bell herewith files its Request for Confidential Classification for the information contained in the documents being delivered to Staff.

4. Southern Bell has appended to this Request for Confidential Classification as Attachment "A" a listing of the location in the documents of the information designated by Southern Bell as confidential, together with statements indicating why the material should be treated as proprietary confidential business information.

5. Appended hereto in an envelope designated as Attachment "B" are two copies of the documents with the confidential information deleted.

6. Appended hereto in an envelope designated as Attachment "C" are copies of the documents with the proprietary information highlighted.

7. The information deemed to be confidential by Southern Bell and identified in Attachment "A" contains, among other things, information developed at a significant cost solely for the internal use of Southern Bell. The information represents research developed for Southern Bell which should not be given free of charge to entities which compete with Southern Bell. Possession of this information would assist Southern Bell's competitors in establishing customer strategies. Therefore, under § 364.183, Florida Statutes, this information is exempt from the Open Records Act as a trade secret.

8. In accordance with Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, this information for which confidential treatment is sought is intended to be and is treated by the Company as private and has not been disclosed on a nonconfidential basis.

WHEREFORE, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company moves the Prehearing Officer to enter an Order declaring the information described above, and contained in the indicated portions of the attached exhibit, to be confidential, proprietary business information and thus not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 25th day of February, 1993.

INDEX AND JUSTIFICATION FOR CONFIDENTIALITY REQUEST

RE: FEBRUARY 9, 1993 DEPOSITION

LATE FILED EXHIBIT OF R. G. BARRERE

This information was developed at a significant cost solely for the internal use of Southern Bell. In that this information represents research performed by Southern Bell, it should not be given free of charge to entities which compete with Southern Bell. Specifically, Southern Bell has compiled and developed these questionnaires in order to assist it in analyzing its billing, provisioning, repair, and directory assistance operations. As such, this information is valuable, and is used by the Company in conducting its business and Southern Bell strives to keep it secret. As such, this information is a trade secret which should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes.

All the material on each page of the document covering pages F01B09V 0000001 through F01B09V 0000039 is considered by Southern Bell to be proprietary and confidential business information.
