Attention: J. Terry Deason, Chairman

Dear Mr. Deason:

This will acknowledge your letter of November 30, 1993, regarding your investigation into allegations concerning Bell South Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company. The focus of your investigation concerns fraudulent sales and billing practices and falsifications of service orders, repair orders and PSC reports.

You ask for our support in your effort to grant use immunity pursuant to Section 350.124, Florida Statutes for certain individuals who have invoked their Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination during your investigation into the above matters. You have provided us with the names of five (5) individuals who reside in our circuit and are within our jurisdiction.

We do not presently have sufficient information concerning your investigation or the need to immunize any of the persons listed in your letter to reach any decision concerning this matter.
